Dedication . . .

To one whom we love and respect; and in whom we have the greatest confidence; to one who has used his time and his talents to improve this school which means so much to us; to our president, Mr. J. Paul Glick, with a feeling of pride and pleasure we dedicate this annual of 1938.

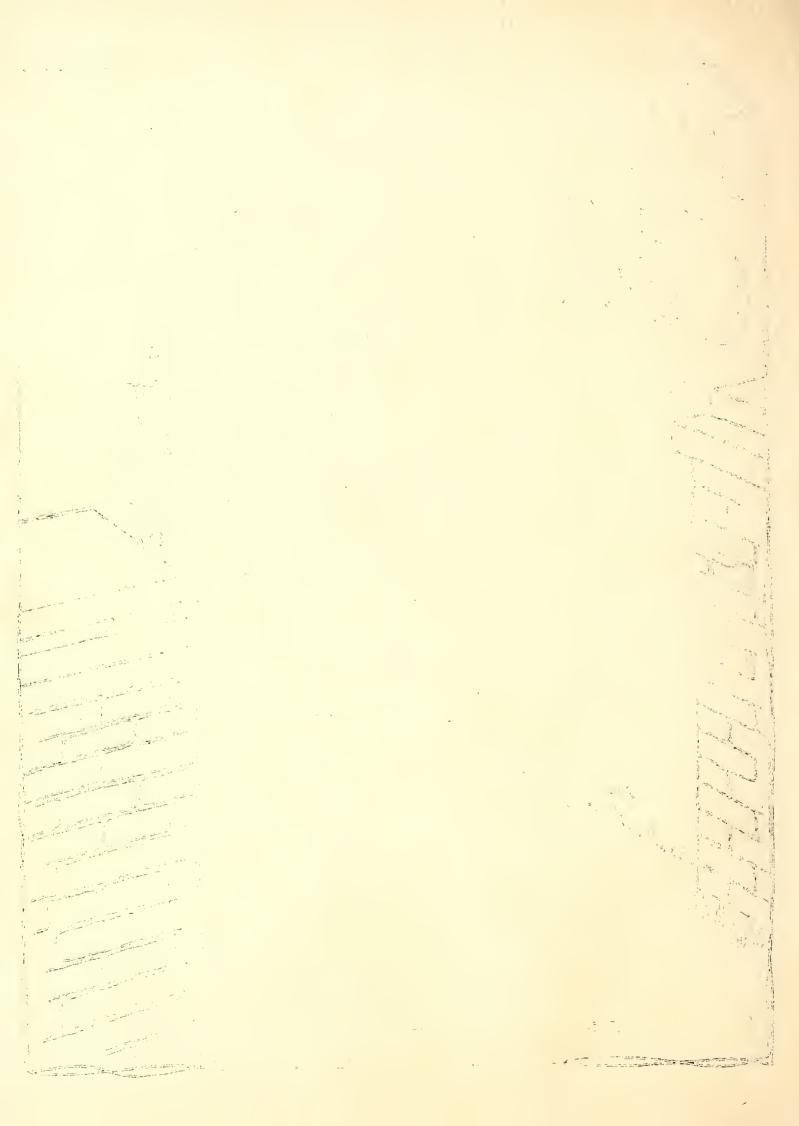

Foreword...

TIME passes on—
It cannot stay,
But in its fleeting course
Plants memories along the way.
Pleasant ones, sad ones,
Too vast to be retold,
But memories of Blackstone
These pages will unfold.

Views

"DISTANCE lends enchantment"—
Here's a scene each student loves.
Upon the web of memory
This view is clearly spun,
And remembered are the friendships
That in Blackstone have been won.

WELL remembered are these arches,
Symbolizing strength and grace.
Under them pass eager feet
Of those beginning life's great race.
Well prepared within this college,
May our lives reflect its strength,
May "other lives be made more noble"
By the lives we close at length.

THE stile . . . this scene is lovely.

How suggestive is each stone,

For our life upon this campus

Is, in truth, a "stepping stone;"

To a life of greater service

And endeavor on our part,

Alma Mater, guide our footsteps

As you've guided each young heart.

So—around these stately columns
Tangle vivid memories
Of campus life and campus scenes;
Of days we've lived,
Of girls we've loved,
And dreams that we have dreamed,
—M. MacKenzie Haig.

Mr. J. Arthur Hardy

In Memoriam

A SHADOW was cast over the town of Blackstone and this college by the death of Dr. John Cecil White, our college physician.

Dr. White rendered his services so willingly, so unselfishly, for the welfare of others. His sympathetic disposition and understanding, qualities so essential for a doctor, were always in evidence. The memory of Dr. White will linger long with us, and a life like this is a goal toward which many will strive.

The community of Blackstone feels deeply the loss of one of its most prominent citizens, Mr. J. Arthur Hardy. Blackstone College shares this loss, for the deceased had been a member of the Board of Trustees from the time the college was established.

Mr. Hardy was active in church and civic affairs. His sincere, Christian character made for him a wide circle of friends. Death cannot remove from our midst the influence of one so loval.

LULLABYE FOR A SLEEPING CHILD

The night is tender; sleep, and dream your dreams; The silver rain falls softly from the eaves; The kindly moon above sheds gentle beams, And trees call gently to departing leaves.

Do not awaken. Sleep, for sleep is kind.
(When will you see again the slanting rain?)
Sleep through the night. Perhaps the singing wind
Will calm my heart, and will relieve my pain.

(When the day dawns, and she begins to stir, Persephone, be very kind to her!)

Alma Mater

Oh dear Blackstone, Alma Mater,
We thy daughters come to thee,
Seeking friends that make us nobler,
Seeking truth that makes us free,
Seeking courage, faith and wisdom,
And the strength to triumph wrong,
Hear, oh, hear us, loving mother,
As we lift to thee our song!

Chorus

Guide, oh guide us, mother dear!

May we ever feel thee near,

May thy daughters live and love

And grow forever, mother dear,

Oh—Oh Blackstone, here's to thee,

Here's to truth that makes us free,

Here's to fame and praise and honor,

And a student's love for thee!

Hail—oh Blackstone, Alma Mater,
We with grateful hearts do sing,
For we called and thou didst answer,
Did thy treasures to us bring,
Did unfold to us the mysteries
Both of books and friendships true;
Now thy daughters answer gladly,
Here's our love, Blackstone, to you!

Oh—Oh Blackstone, Alma Mater!
As we sing our parting lay,
Life's work calls; we dare not linger,
Though with thee, we fain would stay.
Parting comes, but we'll remember
These our happy college days,
And be true to thee, dear mother,
Guide us with thy love, we pray.

Chapman: Oatmeal, oatmeal—every day oatmeal! Agnor: Yes, guess that's why they call it a serial.

Miss Wingo (showing a prospective student around the college): Now, this is the Prospective Student: Fine! Now take me through the curriculum. I hear you have a splendid one here.

Waverly: I wonder how old Miss Wold is? Mary Virginia Woodson: Quite old, I imagine. They say she used to teach Caesar.

Evelyn Burford was at the show the other day and a couple of girls sitting behind her insisted upon talking continuously. Evelyn turned around and said, "Pardon me, but I can't hear a word.'

"Well!" one girl replied, "you're not supposed to; it's a private conversation."

Mona Teets: Can I go through that gate? Little Boy: I guess so, a load of hay just went through.

Lil Wessells received a big order for the canteen. She was disappointed in it because it wasn't up to standard. Lil wired the manufacturers to cancel order immediately. Soon she got a telegram which read, "Sorry, you will have to wait your turn."

. . . This happened the night of the presentation of "The Skull." Everything was ready and Mrs. Nelson said tensely, "All right, Andy, run up the curtain." . . . At that Andy gave Beth a puzzled and disgusted look and replied, "Say, what does she think I am, a squirrel?"

Hester: Are you sure your mother knows I'm going home with you this week-end?

Farley: She should! I've argued with her for weeks about it.

MOST USED JOKE OF THE YEAR—and it really happened

Breuninger: Do you know Bob Chesterfield?

Marianne: What's his name?

Breuninger: Who?

Marianne: Bob Chesterfield! Breuninger: Never heard of him.

Billie Ladd kiddingly told Sesze that Chapman was born in China. After much controversy Sesze was convinced. Then she came upon this brilliant thought: "Then if she was born in China that makes her Chinese, doesn't it?"

Frannie (always trying to do her bit): Now listen, Sesze, if kittens were born in an oven would they be biscuits?

. . . So we will never forget Skee's puns. This one, I think, is the best.

One morning Scotty was late for the dishwasher. Skee rushed in to awaken her: "Scotty, eight a'clock, eight a'clock!"

Scotty, thinking she was at it again, just turned over and said, "Well, why don't you get Dr. Hurt?"

Elsie Parker was counting up the days until she would see Bill again. "How many days in each month?" she asked Maurine.

Maurine replied:

'Thirty days hath September'—
All the rest I can't remember.
The calendar hangeth on the wall,
Why bother me with this at all?'

Carol Briner handed in her registration card to Miss DeJarnette. Miss Thorp, who was standing near by, picked it up and started to read it. "What is your name?" Miss Thorp asked. "Don't you see my signature on the registration card?" Carol asked her indignantly. "I do," Miss Thorp answered. "That is what aroused my curiosity."

Brat Jones: Hey, Maizie, did you notice the gorgeous fur coat worn by the woman in front of us in church this morning?

Maizie: No, I don't believe I did. I was dozing most of the time.

Brat: Heck! A lot of good it does you to go to church.

. . Things to remind us of basketball trips.

While on the way to E. C. T. C. Miss Mims, as usual, stopped the car at a filling station for information rather than gasoline. "How far is it to Greenville, North Carolina?" she asked the filling station attendant.

"Well," the ever-obliging man answered, "it's about 24,967 miles the way you are going, but if you turn around and go the other way it ain't but four miles.

We'll never forget the trouble Mrs. Nelson had going to Westhampton. First the ignition key broke and then something went phooey with the starter. While the mechanic was fixing it, a man stood staring. Mrs. Nelson, already peeved, asked: "At what are you staring—is this the first motor car you've ever seen?"
"No," he replied, "but it is mighty like it."

Mrs. Townlady (as she met Miss Teats and Miss DeJarnette on the street one day near the end of the term): Oh, I thought you had gone!

Miss Teats: No, we're leaving tomorrow.

Mrs. Townlady: That's fine.

W-carest-How I am going to put anything on this little. siece of paper that will half-way say what I want to say to one whom I love so dearly Is a puzzle to me. It hurts me to think that I let last year go by like I did but you can't Day that I haven't done my best to make up for it This year. Remember all of the good times that we have had in 229—the R.C.'s and stuff I shall always remember my day on the Ly line Drive. The did have so much feen. And can you ever forget that flying trip that we made to Surjungton in February. Rigi was so !- its a secret. Then we went to Ella Mais. I never had Do much fun in all my whole lige. Dave was a meanie, though, he didn't let me see you a little. menute. But we have had so much time together in the carteen - and remember when you lived in the informary. Han have been good, kind, Ducere, and thoughtful of me always - I fave you and That goes for Hubert, too, you said that I could. You have given me every reason to remember you, so don't think that I could forget you for a split second. I gromise that if I wer get a job that I am going to come to lash for you on my first vacation hold in store for a dear little girl who can he so swell a friend. You know me so well-even better Than I know myself, I thut . I shall miss you hecause I need you Bornuch. I mly wish that as "I say," I theny for you that would half make up for all of the things you have done for me and the things you have said that have helped me so much. Oh keek, why can't I he ariginal - no-I'm just Lil - and nothing more. Just remember that I am always thinking of you and Sometimes of Att. and I love you, truly. Lil -

Emily ale dear -Here is so much & could write, but when you an paper, I am completely last. you are such a likable person, so much fun, and to frieces. Those brown eyes caught my eye the very first time & saw you. It was then that I wanted to be your friend and now & have succeeded. You are so true and sincere. Buch qualities are enough to lead anyons to victory, and no sabult victory lis yours! enckind hoe had in Lexington with you was fun! and this summer you might from to ask me to go home - I just love you with those long and after wisite burile you stayed in the infirmery. Remember? you have done for me your thought fulne Thus been such a help - and those certain little things you told me were always just what I meeded to get a new start. Thill you were att my home, eve ded have flen. egow are just like one of the family (and so is Nave)-daddy fell for you and its not often he gets "crubbes" on girls. Dan't get me wrong, he like them all, but I was trying to impress that he really does think you are 'specially sweet! and so does Edmond! If you ever forget 'Haliday and everything else, &'m going to (well, you guess). Wilhert is such a precious trick, and I love him too - do you mind? hedind you in booksuping and edic classes I'll always remainder the odd times you made me laugh a even snort once. Those note in on the sly were so liter er en to the it of the and

I laves you honey, and I love you a whole lot - (& known & loves you almost as much as Hubert does - if it's possible! This summer I eve are going speed-boat riding and eat watermelans. I Think you my thoughts of you only half way. 2 Link of me a little the - and & Rove you so daggare much - Write to me and Gevrite aften 'cause &'m going to be quick conting to you - so you the best always will, Bigma estar do mens be what do gotten say Ella mae
